Soon to be termed-out Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina announced plans to challenge Councilman Jose Huizar. (Irfan Khan / Los Angeles Times)

By David Zahniser contact the reporter

September 5, 2014, 5:04 PM

Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina said Friday that she plans to challenge City Councilman Jose Huizar in next year's election, dramatically rearranging a contest that looked like an easy one for the incumbent..

With less than three months before she is termed-out after serving more than two decades as a supervisor, Molina said she isn't ready to end her work as a public servant. The 66-year-old said she was concerned about the level of city services being provided in parts of Huizar's district, which stretches from Boyle Heights to Eagle Rock. She also voiced alarm over the lack of women politicians at City Hall.

"I am concerned that there is only one woman on the [15-member] City Council," said Molina, who had served on the council from 1987 to 1991. "When I left, that wasn't the case at all."

Molina, who spent nearly three decades living in Mt. Washington, said she moved into Huizar's district -- a requirement for candidates seeking the seat -- a few weeks ago. She has separated from her husband, business consultant Ron Martinez, and purchased a three-bedroom home in El Sereno. She also has hired political consultant Fred Register for her campaign.

Huizar, a councilman for the last nine years, is expected to be a formidable candidate. Last month, he reported that he has raised more than $648,000 for his campaign and has drawn support from business and union leaders. Unlike some incumbents at City Hall, he is used to facing reelection challenges.

In 2007, he defeated one of his former aides, Alvin Parra. Four years later, he beat back a challenge from businessman Rudy Martinez, a former friend of Huizar's turned fierce critic.

Molina's candidacy "automatically makes the race more competitive, there's no question about that," said Jaime Regalado, emeritus professor of political science at Cal State Los Angeles. "Jose is very close to [Council President Herb] Wesson, so it will be a battle royale if it plays out. My goodness, this kind of floors me."

Molina has been a major presence on the Eastside over the last 23 years, representing a district that stretches from East L.A. to Claremont. During a lunchtime interview in El Sereno, Molina said she was concerned about the financial health of the city. She also argued that parts of Huizar's district, particularly Boyle Heights, have not received enough attention from city officials. That difference can be seen, she said, when driving from the East L.A. section of her district into the Boyle Heights section of Huizar's.

"There's a lot that needs to change," she said.

Huizar spokesman Rick Coca responded with a statement from the councilman touting his work in the district, which includes El Sereno, part of Highland Park and most of downtown.

"From revitalizing Broadway and helping create thousands of jobs downtown, to building new parks, to championing groundbreaking pedestrian, bike and business friendly policies that are the model for the entire city, the service to Council District 14 constituents has never been higher and I look forward to continuing to serve as their councilmember for the next four years," Huizar said.

Two other people have already announced plans to run for Huizar's seat: Boyle Heights resident Nadine Diaz and Alex San Martin, an advocate for the disabled who lives downtown. Both have raised a tiny fraction of the amount collected by Huizar, according to Ethics Commission reports for the fundraising period that ended June 30.

Molina was elected to the state Assembly, joining the Legislature in 1982. Five years later, she became a member of the City Council and served one term. She has spent the last 23 years on the Board of Supervisors.

In recent months, Huizar has been fending off a sexual harassment lawsuit filed by Francine Godoy, a former aide. Godoy said Huizar punished her for refusing to provide sexual favors. Huizar said Godoy's claims are false. Trial is set for November.

Molina said any payment by the city to settle that case could become an issue. She would not address the matter further. "I'm not running on his scandal stuff, which would be easier. That's his issue and he's gonna have to deal with it," he said.

Screenings of the film "Slavery by Another Name"

Saturday, September 13, 2014 3:30-5:00pm

Tuesday, September 23, 2014 6:30-8:00pm

It was a shocking reality that often went unacknowledged, then and now: A huge system of forced, unpaid labor, mostly affecting Southern black men, that lasted until World War II. Based on the Pulitzer-Prize-winning book by Douglas Blackmon, Slavery By Another Name tells the stories of men, charged with crimes like vagrancy, and often guilty of nothing, who were bought and sold, abused, and subject to sometimes deadly working conditions as unpaid convict labor. 90 minutes

Facilitated Community Discussions:

Thursday, September 18, 2014 6:30-7:45p

Topic:

Historical Jim Crow Era

Scholar: Joshua Mitchell, PhD candidate, Department of American Studies and Ethnicity at USC. His dissertation examines depictions of mass imprisonment in documentary film.

Thursday, September 25, 2014 6:30-7:45pm

Topic:

Modern Day Jim Crow era- Mass Incarceration, sentence reform, school to jail pipeline

Scholars:

Keith James (Stop Mass Incarceration Network), Ken and Teresa Sitz

After the discussion, attendees can participate in a letter writing exercise.

Tuesday, September 30, 2014 6:30-7:45pm

Topic:

Modern Day Human Trafficking in the United States of foreign nationals as well as U.S. born men, women, and children, for sex and other forms of labor.

Scholar:

Dr. Susie Baldwin, HEAL Trafficking (Health Professional Education, Advocacy, Linkage), an interdisciplinary network to unify and advance the efforts of health practitioners in the anti-trafficking movement.

Vocal Concert

Saturday, September 27, 2014 4:30-5:15pm

The Voices of a New Tomorrow Choir returns with another program of civil rights protest songs.

Thanks!

STORY SYNOPSIS

Parker, a multi-millionaire loses her fortune when her husband is arrested for a ponzi scheme. No one will take her in except her loyal Latina maid named Rosario who lives with her traditional Mexican mother and over-sexed sister in East L.A. Rosario's mother and sister pressure her to kick her out, but Rosario wants to make everyone happy and drives everyone crazy. The women learn to accept their differences and Rosario grows a backbone and starts a cleaning company named Clean Start. This comedy about four women in their "Golden" years trying to survive in the "dirty" and costly world, is a cross between Golden Girls and The Odd Couple - with a Latina twist.

CHARACTERS

PARKER (late 40's) (WHITE), Narcissistic, yet lovable like Elise Elliot -- Goldie Hawn in FIRST WIVES CLUB. She's lived a high society life in Beverly Hills and now finds herself living in East LA with her housekeeper. She's used to being waited on and as a result, can hardly take care of herself. Although naive and dependent, she's no ditz, having gone to private schools as well as travelled abroad many times. She speaks both French and Russian. Yet when it comes to street smarts, she's as dim as they come. Her look is tailored, clean and expensive. The people closest to her are her hired help. Her friendships are superficial.

ROSARIO (late 40s) (MEXICAN-AMERICAN) imagine an older Betty Suarez from UGLY BETTY. Responsible. Loyal. Grateful for the 20 long years she's spent working for Parker Reed. At her core, she's a caretaker & peacemaker. Compassionate to a fault. She just wants everyone to be happy — not realizing that it's sometimes at the expense of her own happiness. A kind-hearted soul who's unable to establish boundaries. Rosario lives under the thumb of her mother and in the shadow of her sister. Although they drive her crazy sometimes, Rosario knows that family always comes first...that is, after she tends to Parker's every need.

DOÑA MARIA (60's) (MEXICAN-AMERICAN) She's like a Latina Sophia from THE GOLDEN GIRLS. An immigrant from Mexico, she keeps the traditions alive in the house. She also has the "gift" and uses her black magic whenever necessary. She has no trouble saying what's on her mind. For all her tough exterior, she also has a real maternal side and will be quick with a spell to help someone in need. Having been burned by her last few husbands, Dona Maria watches out for her daughters and cautions them about men.

BLANCA (late 30's - early 40s) (MEXICAN-AMERICAN) Blanca is as much the narcissist as Parker, but while Parker is a socialite, Blanca is a down and dirty party girl. She's a high maintenance, low credit score hottie with bodacious curves that she wears with pride. Not a single inch of her body is augmented. She's 100% natural (aside from faux eyelashes and acrylic nails) and proud of it. In her younger years she was featured on various promo materials of Mexican Beers and various Auto Shop calendars. Immature for her age, she is playful one minute and pouty the next and always flirtatious with men.

VLADIMIR (30's) (WHITE) He's a steaming hot 30-year old Russian who lives in the basement in exchange for "fixing things" around the house. He speaks in broken English and is secretly in love with Blanca. He's a boxer who dreams of being a champion fighter, but realizes that his biggest fight might be with Dona Maria for Blanca's hand in marriage.

CARLTON (mid 30s-40s) (African American). Smart. Handsome and knows it. Parker's lawyer and "friend". Looks great in a suit. He's all business, unless he's talking to Rosario, then his sweetness sneaks out.

10 The Cedillo Weekly 9/5/14

Fri Sep 5, 2014 6:51 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

Friends,

This week City Council was in recess so nothing occurred legislatively, but as we end the summer months and begin the fall, Team Cedillo is planning for another busy month in September with Hispanic Heritage month festivities.

Please save the date for some of these festivities. This Sunday, I will be at the East Los Angeles Mexican Independence parade. Then on Friday September 12, we are going to have a City Council presentation in honoring Los Angeles' rich heritage with Mexican Independence Day; and finally on Monday, September 15 join us at City Hall for the official El Grito de Dolores, Mexican Independence Day celebration.

Gilbert A. Cedillo
Councilmember, First District

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

#RaiseTheWage

This past Labor Day, I joined Mayor Garcetti and several of my colleagues as the Mayor made an important announcement to address poverty our city by raising the minimum wage. Although a motion has not been formally introduced in City Council, I fully support the Mayor's announcement and plan on being part of the official motion when introduced at Council.

Neighborhood Improvement Fund (NIF) Call for Projects

The Housing Committee released a report to authorize the Los Angeles Housing and Community Investment Department (HCIDLA) to release the Neighborhood Improvement Fund (NIF) Call for Projects. The NIF is a $2.6 million program designed to fund small neighborhood improvement projects throughout the City of Los Angeles. Our staff is at work trying to identify such improvements in the First District, please contact our offices if you know of one that needs to be funded or would like more information.

FIELD UPDATE

Debs Park and the Arroyo Seco Homeless Encampments

Clean ups in the Arroyo Seco continued this week. It has been a difficult task for the multi-agency taskforce, but the process to clean the brush clearance, trash and homeless encampments starting from Avenue 43 to the Bridewell Island is moving forward.

So far we have removed and cleared ten encampments at Debs Park, and ten encampments at the Bridewell Islands. The Bureau of Sanitation is removing an estimated 50 to 60 tons of refuse from the area. Although we share the Arroyo Seco with CD14, my staff has coordinated efforts in order to make sure that we are able to complete the enormous task at hand for a community of interest -The Arroyo Seco.

I want to thank the multi-agency taskforce of LAHSA, LAPD, LAFD, DOT, Sanitation, the Watershed Hazmat Team and the Park Rangers for all of their continued hard work to make the Arroyo Seco safe and to protect our environment. We will continue our clean ups and offer assistance to the homeless in the Arroyo Seco and throughout the First District.

Music Education Program

We are proud to announce that applications are being accepted for the first ever, "Council District 1 Music Program" in collaboration with the Grammy Museum. The six week program will guide participants through the creative process of songwriting by the education department of the Grammy Museum. The focus of the program will be for students to use their surrounding of every day life as inspiration for the creation of music. Two classes take place at the historic Park Plaza Hotel in the MacArthur Park area. Students must live or attend school in the First District, and be at least 14 years old in order to join the program. Please email ana.gomez@lacity.org if you are interested or have any questions.

125 ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

76th Annual Mid-Autumn Moon Festival

2014 Mid-Autumn Festival (???) falls on September 8th.

Mid-Autumn Festival is an inherited custom of moon sacrificial ceremonies. The ancient Chinese observed that the movement of the moon had a close relationship with changes of the seasons and agricultural production. Hence, to express their thanks to the moon and celebrate the harvest, they offered a sacrifice to the moon on autumn days.

The Moon Cake(??) is the special food of Mid-Autumn Festival. On that day, people sacrifice moon cakes to the moon as an offering and eat them for celebration. Moon cakes come in various flavors according to the region. The moon cakes are round, symbolizing the reunion of a family, so it is easy to understand how the eating of moon cakes under the round moon can evoke longing for distant relatives and friends. Nowadays, people present moon cakes to relatives and friends to demonstrate that they wish them a long and happy life.

11 Cerritos Cyclist Edgardo Gabat Dies from Injuries after Bike Acciden

Fri Sep 5, 2014 6:51 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

<http://www.loscerritosnews.net/2014/09/03/cerritos-cyclist-edgardo-gabat-dies-from-injuries-after-bike-accident/>

By Rico Dizon

A 57 year-old resident of Cerritos figured in a fatal bicycle accident that occurred along Figueroa Blvd. in Eagle Rock at dusk early last week.

Edgardo Gabat, a professional cyclist and an engineer by profession, was first pronounced brain dead and finally passed away after admission to an area hospital in Eagle Rock.

Reports said that Gabat was with a group of Filipino cyclists who called themselves "Adobo Belo" during that fateful evening in Eagle Rock.

The group was cruising along Figueroa Boulevard just after sunset when Gabat's front tire hit a stone that caused his bike to twist sending the victim off the ground and in the process hit the back of his head on the concrete his helmet notwithstanding.

Reports said Gabat, somehow, was still responding when his companions came to his aid before calling 911. However, his condition took turn for the worst upon his arrival in the hospital.

Louie Jamir, a fellow professional biker in his early 60s who lives in Placentia but who did not ride with the group that day, said, "Edgar has ridden at least five 200-mile cruises in just a two-year period which is considered quite above average and more on the aggressive side by our standard." The dead cyclist's wife confided to a family friend that her husband was really not keen in joining his group that particular evening but the same somehow persisted because they have two guest riders on that occasion.

Viewings for the body of the late cyclist were held in a funeral parlor in Pasadena where most of his siblings reside. Final interment took place at Rose Hills Cemetery.
